Please provide any additional feedback on the instructor/course.

- I thought he did a great job teaching material and engaging the class. I found the information very easy to comprehend and I think it's due to his interesting teaching style.
- Eduard is charismatic, energetic, and overall wonderful to have during the morning. His personality and the vibe he gives off is very refreshing and is a necessity for a morning class. A pleasure to have him, and I would take another one of his classes again!
- The instructor was very organized and good at teaching. He also made the class fun and didn't make the hour and 15 mins seem like eternity.
- Mr. Storm was a great instructor for this course. he had a good sense of humor so the class was never dull. it was interesting hearing him compare the U.S. with Germany, his country of origin, in terms of economics. Mr. Storm was helpful with any questions I had about the course. One thing that I really appreciate was he wrote everything on the white board and then made sure everyone in the class had enough time to write it down before he erased and moved on. Thank You Mr. Storm!
- Eduard was a phenomenal instructor. He taught everything in a clear and precise manner with a variety of examples to grasp the context. He always came prepared and was available for questions out of class. He made macroeconomics an enjoyable course to attend.
- The instructor was incredibly helpful at teaching students how to truly earned your grade. I felt like the instructor cared more about their students than most professors on campus, because he gave everyone ample opportunity to earn a good grade and succeed in this course. His lectures are thought provoking, easy to keep up with and take notes, and present important topics (which the instructor posted supplemental documents if students were wondering more/wanted real-world applications). I definitely recommend this instructor to anyone taking an economics course. He made the class exciting, not just a boring major requirement.
- Great guy, clearly knowledgeable.
